

APA Central Division Panel (Denver, February 20 – 23, 2019)
Panels, organized by the International Ernst Cassirer Society:
The Challenges of Interculturality and Interdisciplinarity for a Philosophy of Culture

Moderator: James South (Marquette University, Milwaukee)

Panel 1:

1. Raji Steineck (University of Zurich)
“Cultural Analysis: Operationalizing the Philosophy of Symbolic Forms”
2. Thomas Meagher (Quinnipiac University)
“Africana Reflections on Philosophical Culture as Problem in Philosophy of Culture”
3. Ralf Müller (Universität Hildesheim)
“Philosophy within the plurality of cultural forms”
4. Jennifer Marra (Marquette University, Milwaukee)
“Cassirer and Eugen Fink on Play”

Panel 2:

1. Adam Westra (University of Ottawa)
“Cassirer’s Philosophy of Language in the Light of Contemporary Psycholinguistics”
2. Sebastian Luft (Marquette University, Milwaukee)
“Clifford Geertz’ Anthropology in the Light of Cassirer’s Philosophy of Culture”
3. Arno Schubbach (ETH Zurich)
“Plurality and Unity, Unity and Diversity. Two-Way Streets in the Philosophy of Culture”
4. Matthias Reichelt (Universität der Bundeswehr München)
“Law is not just paragraphs – Cassirer on the symbolic dimension of law”